MONOROOM – BIO

In 2005 the two Stuttgart DJs and producers Frank Nova and Oliver Schleenvoigt started their latest project Monoroom, and they've been rocking the clubs as a techno Liveact or DJ Act ever since.

The sound resonated in the scene, and Monoroom moved ahead steadily with heavy bookings. The Big Bang came in November 2006. The Brazilian mastermind Gui Boratto lent a hand and played back an explosive Monoroom remix. "Memory Inc. Part 2" hit the dance floors like a bomb. Monoroom gained international attention and the Gui Boratto remix was on the playlists and charts of many Djs worldwide and was licensed for various mix CDs, such as "Cocorico 1" by Oliver Koletzki. Since then, Monoroom has produced for a series of international record labels like Brise Records or Freunde Tontraeger.

When not producing and remixing in the studio Monoroom is mostly on the road as a live act throughout Europe, Asia and particularly South America, and their always original sound - somewhere between Techhouse and Detroit- has played into the hearts and legs of the clubbers.

Supporters of their sound are Guys like Lee van Dowski, Paco Osuna, Argy, Gorge, Nick Curly, Davide Squillace, Someone Else and many more... Frank Nova is one of the co-founders of BRISE RECORDS, together with HELMUT DUBNITZKY.
