URLA ENDER - BIO

URLA ENDER LIVE PROJECT aka Ralf (index id) & Criss (chucky) Urland Ralf Urland is well-known as clockwork and index id. His Discography consists some great milestones like 'schlafphase', 'expedition', and 'odyssee' which are just the peak of his entire terrific emotional work as being a musician and producer.

Furthermore he acts on stage as the co-pilot of one of the world's famous liveact in electronic music, Ralf shows up on stage worldwide since 1993 where electronic music becomes an essential part of the listening community.

Criss Urland is known as 'Elektronisches Klanggut' and also Acts as a terrific dj, he became addicted to electronic music in 1989 and has turned the vinyls since 1993. his selection of impulsive beats are often a special treat. The list of clubs and djs he shared time with is remarkable. In addition to that criss used to be the co-pilot of his brother's liveact 'index id' in the beginning of this century. his first release 'wiederbelebung' of 'Elektronisches Klanggut' is published by Criss' own label 'Klangspektrumrecords' in 2006 and is closed in 2009. Where there is one urland there are two Urlaender(s).

The new urlaenders' urla ender live project starts 2009. Club Sound causes the audience into rythmical movements. The live project is primarily made to entertain our friends of electronic music away from home but maybe there is something at Schallbox Rec. a Division of Neopren Rec. GmbH/CH.
